LOCATION

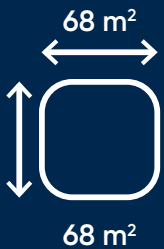

Castelet Chapel

Located in Toulouse's Belfort district, the Castelet Chapel is a 17th-century gem that beautifully blends religious history with baroque architecture. Featuring stunning stained glass windows by Louis-Victor Gesta, this heritage site offers a distinctive and intimate setting for conferences, training sessions, award ceremonies, and exhibitions.

Available for daytime and evening events, the chapel welcomes associations, private guests, and corporate clients alike – an ideal venue for those seeking authenticity, charm, and character.
