LOCATION

Jacobins Convent

Located in the heart of Toulouse, the Jacobins Convent is a masterpiece of Southern Gothic architecture and a true emblem of the city's heritage.

Built in the 13th century, this former Dominican convent captivates visitors with its majestic refectory, soaring vaulted ceilings, and peaceful cloister.

In warmer months, the chapter house and cloister provide an authentic and refined setting for your events. This exceptional venue is ideal for hosting conferences, concerts, or cocktail receptions in a historic and atmospheric environment.
